A WORD FROM Fr. Ryan

On this Sunday 47 years ago, Gaudete Sunday of 1978, Pope St. John Paul II made history. He started a new tradition. He invited the children of Rome to bring to Vatican Square the infant Jesus from their family Nativity scenes, so he could bless them. That became the first Bambinelli Sunday. And now, the tradition continues here in our parish. We will be blessing the bambinelli, the little babies, at the end of every Mass.

It is a fitting celebration for this Sunday of rejoicing. I want to share with you St. John Paul's address to the children of Rome on that Sunday 47 years ago. I think John Paul's words are worth hearing and have something to say to us today. Here's what he said:

"The first representation of the Crib sprung from the brilliant intuition of St Francis of Assisi. Deeply struck and moved by the humility of the Incarnation, on Christmas night in 1223 he got a faithful and pious friend called John to bring to Greccio all that was necessary: straw, hay, the manger and an ox and a donkey in flesh and blood. "I would like"—the Saint said—"to represent the Infant Jesus born in Bethlehem, and to see, so to speak, the hardships he suffered for lack of the things a new-born child needs, how he was put in a manger and how he lay in the hay between the ox and the donkey."

Various friars came to the place; men and women arrived rejoicing from the lonely cottages in the region, carrying candles and torches to illuminate that night on which, as the biographer notes further, "there shone forth splendid in the sky the Star that illuminated all days and times". A priest celebrated the Eucharist and Francis of Assisi, who was a Deacon, sang the Holy Gospel with his strong, sweet voice, clear and resounding, Greccio had become like a new Bethlehem. The representation of the Crib, which had sprung from the heart of a Saint, spread throughout Italy, Europe and the whole world.

As I bless your little statue of the Infant Jesus, take them home with great care also as a sign of the Pope's love for you and your families. Put it in your Crib with intense faith, with that faith with which the Blessed Virgin, the Mother of God, laid the new-born Jesus in the manger. Invite your father, your mother, your brothers and sisters, the whole of your family, to gather round the Crib in these days of Christmas, to recite together the prayers learned on your mother's lap, to sing the sweet carols, so charged with human and Christian sentiment.

May the Infant Jesus, present in the Crib of your home, be the concrete sign of sincere faith, which will enlighten, guide and direct your life and that of your dear ones!"

St. Francis made his little home like Bethlehem when he set up the first Christmas Nativity in 1223. May our Nativity be a concrete sign of our Faith. With our Nativity set up in our homes, may our family be as joyful as the Holy Family of Bethlehem in these coming days.

Oremus pro invicem!

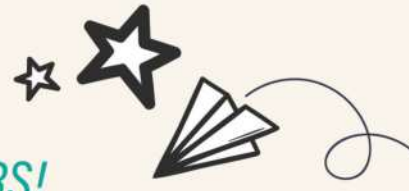

Fr. Ryan P. Brady

Turkey Extraordinaire Homebound Meals Report

Thanks to our many volunteers who showed up on Wednesday and Thanksgiving morning, a wonderful Turkey Day feast was prepared and delivered. The volunteers included our "regulars," including our faithful scouts and their moms, along with our neighborhood teens, and many other new faces. The large group of volunteers helped create a welcoming, spirit-filled atmosphere.

As you can see from the picture, the traditional feast was indeed a delicious sight. There were turkey breast slices, gravy, stuffing, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, green beans, and a beautiful tossed salad with dressing. For dessert, there was a slice of home-baked pound cake made with love by one of our chefs. And of course, keeping with tradition, there was a pumpkin slice baked by Country House Restaurant. A big thank you goes out to Country House for giving us a very generous discount on the pumpkin slices. Each recipient also received special Christmas decorations, made especially for them by our Girl Scouts in Troop 26293.

Both Father Ryan and Father Wayne came down to visit with the volunteers. Father Ryan blessed the meal and those who prepared it.

A big shout-out to the St. Christina Holy Name Men's Club for picking up the tab for the meal and to the anonymous donors who donated the turkey breasts. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Homebound Meals will be taking a holiday break. Watch The Sign for details concerning the upcoming schedule.

The Homebound Meals Ministry wishes you a very happy Christmas and the best for 2026. May Our Lord bless every one of you.
