A WORD FROM Fr. Ryan

There was a time when Joseph felt blessed to tell his family and friends that the most beautiful, lovely, sensible, and virtuous young woman in Nazareth was going to be his wife! Joseph, full of love, would walk with his betrothed through the streets, his neighbors staring at them in awe; Mary and Joseph, radiant and brimming with joy! And now, poor Joseph! We hear, in today's Gospel, news that must have brought agony to his heart. He loved so much! And his beloved, Mary, that wonderful woman who accepted his hand in marriage, had such distressing news!

Imagine the pain in Joseph's heart at the news that Mary was expecting — and it was not his Son! So much of this journey was a mystery for Joseph. Initially, God hadn't told Joseph that the son of Mary was to be his Son! There were so many "ups" and "downs" in Joseph's heart. Yet, God consoled Joseph through the visit of an angel. Joseph was virtuous and accepted the message of God's angel — and he lived devoutly for this Child born of the Virgin. Joseph was created for Mary — and for Jesus.

In time, the child in the womb of his betrothed would call him "dad" and hold his hand. Jesus would cry on Joseph's shoulder, kiss his face, and hug his neck. Jesus would live with Joseph, sing with him, work with him, laugh with him, play with him, pray with him!

Joseph was distressed, yet he loved and trusted in God. In time, Joseph would receive the great reward of one who has trust in God. The Son of God would call him "dad." Joseph was loved by God. Joseph should be loved by us too.

As we prepare for Christmas, may we welcome Jesus into our hearts and homes with the same trust as St. Joseph. Inspired by Joseph, may we too hold the hand of Jesus. May we let Jesus cry on our shoulder, kiss our face, hug our neck! And may we cry on His shoulder, kiss His face, and throw our arms around His neck! May we — like Joseph — live with Jesus, sing with Him, work with Him, laugh with Him, play with Him, and pray with Him!

At Christmas, the world longs to peer into the lives of the Holy Family of Nazareth — Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. As beautiful as that glimpse may seem — the greater gift at Christmas is that the Holy Family longs to peer into our family and become one with us. This Christmas, and throughout our lives, may we open our homes and hearts to Jesus, Mary, and Joseph.

Over the coming days, as we celebrate Christmas, I am overjoyed at the gift God has given me of being your pastor. On behalf of Fr. Wayne, our parish deacons, and parish staff — Merry Christmas!

God bless you and keep you! And, as always, oremus pro invicem!

Fr. Ryan P. Brady

Inspiration for the Week

Sometimes we want God's instructions to be clear and precise — like the angel in Joseph's dream. But Joseph's understanding was only as strong as his devotion to God's will. If we give our lives to God as Joseph did, we will know what he asks of us

Christmas Wafers “Oplatek”

For those of you who are familiar with the Christmas Eve tradition of sharing the Christmas Wafer, “Oplatek,” they are available at both doors near the altar. Donations appreciated.

Thank You!

Thank you for your generous donations to the Giving Tree collection. Your donations of gift cards and money will make Christmas brighter for several parish families.

Holy Name News

The Holy Name Men's Club elected officers for 2026 during its December general meeting. Members of the current board were retained with two officers taking new positions. Pat Roberto, advisor, will serve as sergeant at arms. Former sergeant at arms, John Owens, will serve as second vice president.

Staying on will be Mike Giancarlo, president; John Gorman, first Vice President; Mark Renderman, treasurer; Bill Sweeney, secretary; Mike Sinde, parish liaison; Mo Walsh, membership chairman; Jack Ullrich, athletic chairman; and Ed Hayes, Bill Fitzgibbons, Chuck Bingham, and Tom Downes, advisors.

During the meeting, members were truly in the Christmas spirit. A $1,000 donation for the parish's 100th anniversary banner was unanimously approved. Also approved was a $500 contribution to Park Lawn, a longtime Holy Name tradition. Members also approved the purchase of ten $25 gift cards for the parish Giving Tree. Last month a $5,000 donation was approved for the parish, a longtime Holy Name tradition.

Why Do We Do That? — Catholic Life Explained

Tithing vs. Stewardship

Question:

What is the difference between tithing and stewardship?

Answer:

Both tithing and stewardship are part of a spiritual way of life that calls us to use all of our resources for the service of the Gospel. Everything we are and everything we have comes from God. Offering back to God what He has given us is part of how we worship and give thanks to God.

Tithing is the practice of giving back 10 percent of what we earn. It comes from the Old English word for “ten.” The first Scriptural example of tithing came from Abraham who gave a tenth of his possessions to the priest Melchizedek. He did so as an act of thanksgiving to God.

Stewardship as a way of life calls us to use well all that we have and all that we are, placing all things in service of others and God. Stewardship helps us see the good we can accomplish by making God and our spiritual life the most important values in our life. Whatever we accumulate in this life stays here. We can't take it with us! Both tithing and stewardship help us remember that nothing is mine or even ours... all belongs to God.
